Getting from the airport to Melbourne CBD

To get from the airport to Melbourne CBD, you can either catch a Skybus (about $19pp each way, refer <https://www.skybus.com.au/melbourne-city-express/>; you can buy the ticket at the airport) or take a taxi / Uber (about $40 to $50).

The Skybus has only one stop in the Melbourne CBD, Southern Cross Station.

Instructions to go to the bus pick-up point from Southern Cross station

To go from Southern Cross station to the pick-up point, you can walk to Flinders Street and catch a tramway (line 70 towards Wattle Park, or line 75 towards Vermont South).

You will have to get off at stop #6 ("Russell St/Flinders St").

Other options can be found using the journey planner on the PTV website:

<https://www.ptv.vic.gov.au/journey/> (Enter the Departure point (from): "Skybus Coach Terminal/Spencer St" and the Destination (to): "Russell St/Flinders St #6)

We recommend you do the journey by tram as it is within the Melbourne free tram zone, so you don't need a ticket or travel card. (If you choose to go by train from Southern Cross station to Flinders Street station (one stop), but you will have to purchase a Myki travel card)
